NEWSMAKER LUNCHEON: THE FUTURE OF THE HOAN BRIDGE

Residents, news media invited to panel discussion

Milwaukee, WI – 8th District Milwaukee County Supervisor Patricia Jursik, who represents St. Francis, Cudahy, South Milwaukee and parts of Oak Creek, will participate in a panel discussion on the future of the Hoan Bridge on Wednesday. The event is hosted by the Milwaukee Press Club and is open to the public.

The Future of the Hoan Bridge

Wednesday, October 28, 11:45 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Newsroom Pub, 137 E. Wells St., Milwaukee, WI

“It’s a pleasure to participate in this important discussion, and I invite those concerned about the Hoan to attend this event. The Hoan Bridge is a vital link to our south shore, and there is much misinformation being floated by those who want to tear down this lifeline,” Supervisor Jursik said. “I am dedicated to providing accurate information to educate all citizens on the importance of keeping this high-level bridge in place.”
